What is the Pre-Admissions Clinic?
The Clinic will make your admission to the hospital easier. This preparation allows you to be admitted on the day of your surgery.

During this visit as an out-patient, you will have preoperative tests done.

The number of tests you will have depends on the type of surgery you are having, your age and present health.

Your visit will include:
1. Admitting Registration
2. Blood Tests
3. A nurse interview to teach you all about your surgery, what will happen the day of surgery, and what to expect when going home.

Your visit may also include:
1. X-rays.
2. Electrocardiogram (ECG).
3. A consultation with an anesthesiologist, medical physician or both.
4. Other tests ordered by the Surgeon or consultant.

How long can I expect this visit to take?
Your visit may take 1-3 hours, depending on how many tests and consultations have been ordered for you.

How do I book my pre-admission visit?
Your Doctor's secretary will book this for you.

What are the pre-admission hours?
The Clinic is open daily Monday – Thursday, 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Must I attend?
If an appointment has been made for you, then the answer is YES – If you do not attend, your surgery will be cancelled.

The tests requested by the surgeon must be completed before your admission to the hospital.

If you are unable to keep the booked Pre-Admission appointment, please call the Pre-admission Clinic between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Monday to Friday.

What should I bring to my visit?
On the day of your Clinic visit you should take all your normal medications and feel free to eat or drink normally.

Please bring with you:
1. A translator, if you need one or would like one.
2. Completed patient questionnaire.
3. Any medication you are taking.
4. Your provincial health insurance card.
5. Any private insurance information.
6. Any other documentation your doctor has given you:
   • History & Physical
   • Letters from your specialists.
7. A book to read, any money for coffee or lunch.
8. Any questions you may have.

Before surgery date:
You will be phoned by a Clinic nurse one working day before your schedule surgery to confirm the time of your surgery and time you must arrive at the hospital.
We hope this will provide the answers to your questions and concerns. We look forward to seeing you on the day of your surgery.
