

The F.M. Hill Lecture | Autumn 2012

Women Leaders, Wicked Problems

Wednesday, Oct. 24, 2012
4:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Women's College Hospital • Cummings Auditorium (E-139D) • 76 Grenville St., Toronto

Featuring Catherine R. Lucey, MD

Professor of Medicine, Vice Dean for Education, UCSF School of Medicine

After attending this session, participants will be able to:

- contrast the characteristics of technical problems with complex adaptive problems
- differentiate between transactional and transformational leaders
- use the lens of complex adaptive problems and the tools of transformational leadership to address current problems in health-care delivery and leadership in academic medical centres

A reception will follow in the boardroom (E-252) from 5:30 – 7 p.m.

Please RSVP by Oct. 17, 2012 to Vaughn Gillson
