

THE POWER OF US:
A Celebration
of Women

International Women's Day 2010

This year, on International Women's Day, we're celebrating: Women's resilience and resistance. Women's achievements and progress.
Women's voices and women's spirit.

Don't miss the party.

Jessica Yee – youth activist, indigenous hip-hop feminist, author of two books, founder and executive director of the Native Youth Sexual Health Network, recipient of the 2009 YWCA Young Woman of Distinction Award – and 24 years old.

d'bi young – musician, dub poet, actor, teacher and storyteller – and one of Canada's most celebrated artists. She is currently playwright-in-residence at CanStage Theatre, author of two dub poetry collections and two plays, producer of five albums, and recipient of countless arts awards.

Monday, March 8, 2010

7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Metro-Central YMCA • 20 Grosvenor St., Toronto

For tickets call: UofTtix Box Office at (416) 978-8849 or uofttix.ca
$17.50 through UofTtix or $15 at Women's College Hospital, Ankh Gift Shop – cash and pickup only

