Senior Care Supports Resource List - Toronto Region

There are many programs and services for seniors in the community. Knowing what resources are available and how to navigate the healthcare system to find the right resources can be a challenge for many. We have compiled a helpful list of programs and services in the Toronto region that can be accessed as needed.

This community resource list is not a comprehensive listing of all available resources. The resource list is NOT an endorsement or recommendation of any community resource for your personal needs, and is not designed or intended to constitute medical/health care advice or to be used for diagnosis. It is suggested this resource may assist as a starting point for planning your care using the community support and services that best suit your needs. Refer to the Table of Contents to select those that suit your needs. Read the summary of services and programs offered by the organization along with their contact information. Please call or visit their website for a complete list of the services offered, including any criteria or waitlists. The resource list does not replace the resources recommended to you by your healthcare provider.

Acknowledgement: This list was developed in collaboration with the Patient Experienced Advisor alongside the Family Practice Patient and Family Advisory Committee.

Chronic Conditions

Dementia and Alzheimer's

Dementia is not a disease but a term that describes a range of symptoms. Symptoms include memory loss and changes in a person's thinking, reasoning, learning, language, judgement, and behaviour. Dementia affects a person's ability to function in their day-to-day activities. Dementia is usually chronic or progressive in nature.

Alzheimer's is a specific disease of the brain and the most common type of dementia. There are other types of dementia, such as Lewy body dementia, mixed dementia, and vascular dementia, to name a few. Symptoms of dementia gradually worsen over time. Alzheimer's is characterized by progressive memory loss and cognitive decline.

Multiple Sclerosis

Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Canada

- Multiple sclerosis (MS) is a chronic disease of the central nervous system.
- MS is unpredictable. Some people may be only mildly affected. Others may lose the ability to see clearly, write, speak, or walk.
- Early symptoms can include vision problems, trouble walking, and tingling feelings.
- MS affects people differently. Common problems are trouble with movement and thinking and bowel and bladder incontinence.

Eligibility:

- People who are affected by MS.

MS Canada is not a crisis centre. MS Canada provides programs and services for people affected by MS, such as:

- Peer support programs can help you and your loved ones connect with the community.
- A grant through their Quality-of-Life program for equipment needs, including air conditioners, fans, bath aids, hospital beds, lifts systems, mobility aids and transferring aids, to name a few.
- Call the MS Navigator to learn more about their Quality-of-Life program or peer support service.

Osteoporosis

Osteoporosis Canada

Osteoporosis is a bone disease where bones become weak and thin over time, which can increase the risk of fracture. The Public Health Agency of Canada suggested that 1.5 million Canadians aged 40 and over have osteoporosis. Osteoporosis occurs more in women than men as women have a lower density and lose more bone mass with age. Typical fractures associated with osteoporosis are the hip, spine, wrist and shoulder fractures, which can lead to disability, lower quality of life and even death. Preventive measures such as exercise, vitamins and minerals help to reduce the risk of osteoporosis. For more information, visit the following websites:

Address: 201 – 250 Ferrand Dr. Toronto, ON M3C 3G8

Home and Community Care Support Services

In-Home and Community Services

Note: Client or family can self-refer to HCCSS

Home and Community Care Support Services (HCCSS) coordinate with patients and families to provide in-home and community-based care throughout Ontario. The coordinator assesses the patient's care needs and provides the services based on the care needs identified. Coordinators liaise with health care practitioners (family doctors, specialists) to support clients/families in navigating the health care system throughout their health care journey.

HCCSS assists patients and families to:

- Remain safely at home with health care supports, such as physiotherapist, occupational therapist, dietitian, speech therapist, social worker and personal support worker
- Return home from the hospital to recover at home
- Find a family doctor or nurse practitioner
- Find community services that support healthy and independent living
- Find specialized clinics, such as intravenous therapy and wound care services
- Assess eligibility and admission for long-term care home, respite care or supportive living, such as assisted living and
- Die with dignity in the setting of their choice - Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID)

Social Supports

Adult Day Program

Adult day programs (ADP) provide part-of-the-day supervised programming in a group setting for dependent adults, such as the frail elderly, individuals with Alzheimer's, or individuals with disabilities. Services may include leisure activities, meals, and personal care.

Process:

Call and speak to the intake coordinator to register for the program.

The coordinator will assess each client's eligibility and provide options to meet your needs.

Note: Some programs provide transportation services for a nominal fee. All applications are placed on a waitlist. If you cannot afford the transportation fee and/or the program's cost, you may apply for subsidy through the adult day program you attend if available.

March of Dimes

The March of Dimes Canada provides the basic funding for the Home and Vehicle Modification and Assistive Device Program for those living with a disability to remain in their home. Funding is not always guaranteed. Please see below for funding opportunities along with eligibility.

Home and Vehicle Accessibility – Funded by the Ministry of Children Community and Social Services

You may be eligible for:

- Up to $15,000 lifetime maximum for home modifications, adaptations, and devices
- Up to $15,000 for vehicle modifications every 10 years

To qualify, you must:

- Be a permanent Ontario Resident
- Be in financial need (combined household income of under $60,000)
- Have a permanent ongoing or recurring disability that impedes mobility and results in substantial restrictions in activities of daily living (eating, bathing, toileting, transferring, and mobility) and/or getting in and out of your home to access essential medical care or community services

Goals of the program include:

- Remove or minimize a life safety risk
- Prevent hospitalization/institutionalization
- Allow discharge from the hospital/institution
- Avoid loss of employment and income
- Allow a caregiver to meet the responsibilities of caring for a dependant with a disability
- To support both children and adults to participate in developmental/community activities

Applicants (and their spouses, life partners, or guardians, if applicable) with an annual income of more than $35,000 are required to contribute toward the cost of the modifications, adaptations, and devices.

Finding a Health Care Provider

1. Health Care Connect

Health Care Connect is a program launched by the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care to help Ontarians without a family healthcare provider find one. The program refers people to physicians or nurse practitioners who are accepting new patients in your community. To learn more about the program visit their website, provided below.

Note: Health Care Connect does not guarantee they will find you a health care provider. You will not be able to sign up for Health Care Connect if you are already registered with a health care provider.

Eligible:

- Not already enrolled with a family doctor
- Have a validated Ontario health card
- Have an up-to-date mailing address associated with your health card

To register, call the telephone number below or register online.

Click on the link to register online: Health Care Connect - Requirements for Registration - MOHLTC \(gov.on.ca\)

A Health Care Connect nurse will:

1. Review your request.
2. Try to find you the right family health care provider in your community accepting new patients.
3. Contact you if a provider is found for you and give you their contact information.

Address: Unavailable

Telephone: 1-800-445-1822 or call 811 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Website: Health Care Connect - My Home Page - MOHLTC \(gov.on.ca\)

2. Ontario Physician

Contact an Ontario physician to ask if they are accepting new patients.

Steps:

1. Use The College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario's Find a Doctor search.
2. Choose "Advanced Search" to find a doctor near you (by city/town or postal code).
3. Click on "Additional Search Options" to narrow your search (to family doctors and/or language spoken).

Contact the doctor to check if they are accepting new patients.
